Scholarships:

The Saint Catherine of Siena Scholarships are awarded to three students newly registered at Siena Catholic Academy for the 2019-2020 school year: two 6th graders and one 7th grader. The award recognizes students of exemplary scholarship and character who have been in the Catholic school system for at least three years. The recipients of this scholarship will each receive annually a $400 tuition reduction for each of their years at Siena. Applications due by April 29th, 2019.

The Saint John Fisher Scholarships, named after the patron saint of the Diocese of Rochester, are awarded to new students entering Siena Catholic Academy. Families who have made a commitment to Catholic education by enrolling a child in Catholic elementary schools in the Diocese of Rochester will be eligible recipients when he or she enters grades 6th or 7th at Siena Catholic Academy. In honor of Bishop Matano's strong support for Catholic education, the Saint John Fisher Scholarship Fund will be awarded to students who exhibit academic, religious and leadership qualities. The recipients of this scholarship will each receive annually a $1,000 tuition reduction for each of their years at Siena. Applications due by May 1st, 2019.
